RE: _____

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is formal notice that you have failed to respond to my dispute letter of _____. I sent this letter registered mail and have enclosed a copy of the return receipt which you signed on _____.

As you know, federal law requires you to respond within 30 days. It has now been over that period since your receipt of my letter. That failure to comply with federal regulations by credit reporting agencies is in serious violation of the Fair Credit Reporting Act and may be investigated by the FTC. Obviously, I am maintaining detailed records of all my correspondence with you.

I am aware that you may have misplaced my letters or have failed to respond to my letter because of an oversight due to the high volume of the requests you receive daily. If this is the case, I'm expecting you'll want to handle this matter as soon as possible. For this purpose, I have included a copy of my original request, the dated receipt of your reception of the original letter and a copy of the proof verifying the incorrectness of the credit item you have mistakenly placed on my records.

The following information therefore needs to be verified and deleted from the report as soon as possible: _____

Please delete this erroneous item from my credit report as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

_____
